DR DAVID HILLSON, THE RISK DOCTOR

David Hillson has a global reputation as an excellent speaker and presenter on risk. His talks blend thought-leadership with practical application, presented in an accessible style that combines clarity with humour, guided by the Risk Doctor motto: “Understand profoundly so you can explain simply”.

David has advised executive teams in many industries on how to create value from risk based on a mature risk culture, and his wisdom and insights are in high demand. He has also received many awards for his ground-breaking work in risk management over many years.

David has presented keynote speeches at major events around the world, to audiences on every continent (except the Antarctic!), and he is equally comfortable addressing thousands of delegates, smaller more intimate groups, or in-house teams.

David is available worldwide for speaking engagements. Current keynote and conference topics include:

- The ABC of Risk Culture
- Black Swan Hunting: Handling emergent risk
- Creating Silver Linings: Proactive opportunity management
- Managing Risky Stakeholders
- Managing Risky Change
- Think Risk: Understanding risk attitude
- How much risk is too much risk? Understanding risk appetite
- How risky is your project? (and what are you doing about it?)
- How to manage the risks you didn't know you were taking
- Risk Energetics: Sustainable risk management
- Managing risk in complex projects
- Risk-based innovation: The Innovation Ecocycle
- Managing risk in nation-building
